Start Time: 0845 for 09:00 both days Finish Time: 1700 both days

Admin: Non residential. Bring a packed lunch each day. Tea & Coffee will be available.

Outline: The club coach course is not discipline specific and is an introduction into coaching. It deals mainly with coaching methods and communication, taking the technical skills in a shooting discipline already learned and using that learning to deliver effective training to others. It helps you take the step from instructing to coaching.

Essential Precursors: Current NSRA licences both (1) as a Club Instructor and (2) either NSRA RCO or NSRA YPS Tutor in an airgun discipline as appropriate to your Club Instructor licence. In addition you must either be an individual Life or Annual member of the NSRA or hold a current adult appointment in The Scout Association or the Cadet Forces.

Topics Covered: British shooting organisational structure, Law, Safety, Equipment, Communication, Presentation skills, Organisation, General goals of body positioning, Process of firing a shot, Helping people to learn, Putting it all together a practical coaching session, Code of conduct, General documents, Assessment.

Assessment: Candidates will deliver a 20 minute coaching session under observation. Assessments for this course will be held at Crewe Rifle and Pistol Club on a date to be agreed with the assessing County Coach or may be arranged with your own local County Coach.
